AT WORK ON THE TARIFF BILL The Senate Finance Committee Making Good Progress.

The republican members of the Senate committee on finance resumed consideration of the tariff bill at 10 o'clock this morning and remained steadily at work until 1:45, when a short recess was taken for lunch. They refused to see any one during the session except democratic members of the committee, who dropped in one at a time, but remained only a little while. There was no one about the Capitol who desired to be heard and the committee was enabled to make considerable progress with the bill. At the recess hour schedules A and B, covering chemicals, earths, earthenware, potters' and glass ware had been disposed of and several pages of schedule C—metals and manufactures of iron and steel. The changes that were made from the text of the House bill are said to have been comparatively slight and unim-

TODAY'S VARIED HAPPENINGS ABROAD

HARRISON IN PITTSBURG. The President's Party Received by the Mayor and Military. PITTSBURG, PA., May 31.-President Harrison and party arrived in this city at 7 o'clock this morning. They were received by the mayor, a brass band and a military company and were driven to their hotel. President Harrison held a reception at Me-President Harrison held a reception at Mechanical Hall, Exposition Building, at 9 o'clock. Three thousand people shook hands with him. He was the guest of the Scotch-Irish congress. After the reception the meeting was addressed by Gov. Campbell of Ohio. The reception at the hall lasted half an hour and at its conclusion three cheers were given and the presi-dential party returned to Union station.

A large crowd gathered to see him leave. He held an informal reception among the railroad men, superintendent Pitcairn acting as master of ceremonies. Upon his arrival at his car he was much surprised to find a beautiful floral tribute. It was a large set piece of pansies, immortelles, roses and smilax. The base was about 6 feet long by 30 inches wide. It was 5 feet high. It was a representation of the seal of Pittsburg supporting the shield of the United States. On the base was inscribed: "To President Harrison and Secretaries Windom, Wanamaker and Rusk, with the compliments of the Scotch-Irish congress." The President and his cabinet officers were much pleased and thanked Mr. Hamilton, a member of the reception comfor a speech the President responded by appearing on the car platform and bowing. At 10 o'clock the train pulled out and the President's second visit to Pittsburg was over.

THE FORT WORTH DISASTER. The Spring Palace Afire and a Panic Ensues-Several Killed.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, May 31.—The Grand Spring Palace caught fire at 10 o'clock last night. The decorations were of a highly inflammable character-cotton, live oak moss, grasses, &c. -and by 11:30 o'clock the building was entirely consumed. The fire occurred while dancing was in progress and a panic ensued. The stairway was instantly blocked by a surging mass of men and women. Women were running to and fro shricking for their husbands and children, and from the windows of the building men and women dropped to the ground, twenty feet below. The casualties, so far as learned, are as follows:

A. L. Haines, chief hydraulic engineer of the Fort Worth and Denver railroad, so badly burned that he died; a little girl, six years old. thrown from a window in the second story and killed; W. R. Cruce and C. W. Evarts, New Orleans, were fatally injured; Mrs. Hecker, Elgin, Ill., badly hurt; J. S. Davis, Fort Worth, badly burned; Judge Cooper, Fort Worth, both legs broken above the knee; Mrs. Valeny Halle, Marshall, right leg broken above the knee; George Settler of the Fort Worth and Denver badly burned; Mrs. W. A. Wiams, spine injured; Mrs. Kate Spencer, left arm broken and badly burned; Miss Leah Couts, Weatherzie Grant, Weatherford, injured internally Bissell Wilson, St. Louis, a railroad hand, leg broken and injured internally; Mrs. W. R. Ken-nedy, New Orleans, badly hurt; E. H. Fudge, Chicago, jumped from third story, breaking one arm and both legs and is injured inter-within fifteen minutes of the breaking out of the fire 20,000 people were in the grounds and the scene was agonizing. Men and women rushed frantically from crowd to crowd looking for loved ones, in many cases shricking and crying. Many ladies fainted. The loss will reach $250,000. The insurance is nominal.

Among those present was Russell Harrison and his partner, Mr. Sleicher of Frank Loslie's.

Just as they were talking of the inflammable nature of the decorations the cry of fire sounded. Mr. Sleicher turned to Mr. Harrison

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., May 31.—All the bodies recovered from the Oakland disaster were identified at midnight. It is believed that no more lives were lost, but parties are still at the were thirteen drowned.

Among the saved from the first car were Capt. M. P. Roberts, his neice, Mrs. S. H. Roberts and her two daughters. The captain and his relatives occupied seats in the forward car, and when the accident occurred were the first to be submerged. The first thing the captain realized was that he was floating under the car ventilators with one of the children— Effic—clinging to his neck and Mrs. Roberts and her elder daughter struggling in the water. and her elder daughter struggling in the water. Realizing his danger he called upon them to follow and plunged through the car door, which was submerged. On coming to the surface he found a boat, to which he and the others clung to until they were taken ashore. Miss May Austin, daughter of Henry S. Austin, he had a support the surface of Austin & Phelps, was saved, but her father and her sister Florence drowned. Miss Austin was sitting one seat ahead of her father and sister.
